Kate and Michael,
CARB is considering whether to go visit GB for audits in the fall. If I remember correctly, GB doesn't actually rely on any CARB audits to fulfill its requirements, right?

Meredith,

I just had one thought on this...two flow audits are required annually. Does the district conduct the second audit? Or does the EPA contractor conduct the audit? The audits need to be 5-7 months apart. Merrin

Here is what Chris Lanane at Great Basin had to say...

I have not heard anything from ARB about any audits. January through May is our busiest time of the year because that is the most severe dust season. It is the worst time of year in which to schedule audits. They can try to audit during that period, but if there are
